Kinsman International: Kinsman International Award

Dr. Donald M. Kinsman International Travel Award

Objective

1. Dr. Donald M. Kinsman was a long-time AMSA member whose work in meat science research and commitment to international opportunities for students set him apart from his peers. The objective of this program is to honor the memory and achievements of Dr. Kinsman and promote international collaboration by recognizing an outstanding student member with a financial award in support of international travel.

Eligibility

1. Eligible students must present verification of their plan to travel internationally with primary intent toward meat science education. Appropriate international activities involve the international travel of a student for the primary purpose of meat science education. (Examples include study, research, or internship opportunities, as well as attendance at meetings that are international for the student, such as ICoMST or RMC, for the purpose of presenting their research findings).

In recognition of Dr. Kinsman's distinguished service in the armed forces, special consideration is given to applicants with military service records.

Nature of the award

1. One award will be presented this year. The award consists of a cash payment of $2,000. The recipient will also be required to provide a follow-up report that details how the funds were used and details their experiences.

Materials to apply

1. Statement of Interest - The student shall write a statement of interest no more than 2 pages how he/she fulfills the criteria of the award, which is
    a. Verification of their plan to travel internationally with primary intent toward meat science education,
    b. Itinerary listing at least the dates, locations, and activities at each stop
    c. Quality of the meat science education experience
    d. Military Service
2. Resume - The resume shall be suitable to accompany a job application in the meat and food industry and include the accomplishments that confirm that this is an outstanding student.
3. Student Unofficial Transcript
4. Any additional items (if applicable)

Submitting Application

Application materials should be combined into one PDF file titled "Name of Nominee_Name of Scholarship", which should also be included in the email subject line.
